

SLO 9 – Measure 1

Newly Developed Rubric:

Insight Project Grading Rubric

Unsatisfactory	Satisfactory	Excellent
An Unsatisfactory response is one that fails to develop or express the significant insight into the lived experience of disability.	A Satisfactory response is one that expresses significant insight into the lived experience of disability.	An Excellent response is one that expresses significant insight into the lived experience of disability and goes on to develop creative and innovative ways of thinking about the rehabilitation potential inherent within that experience.

SLO 9 – Measure 2

Interview Project Grading Rubric

Unsatisfactory	Satisfactory	Excellent
An Unsatisfactory response is one that fails to develop or express significant insight into the psychosocial and cultural aspects of disability.	A Satisfactory response is one that expresses significant insight into the psychosocial and cultural aspects of disability.	An Excellent response is one that expresses significant insight into the cultural and psychosocial aspects of disability and goes on to develop creative and innovative ways of thinking about the rehabilitation potential inherent within that experience.