

Working with Employers

(This is section K of the Job Placement Plan which is the capstone project for Occupational Analysis and Job Placement).

Plans for post-employment services including working with the employer so that the client will be both successful and satisfied on the job. In developing your strategies for post-employment services, identify three major concerns that may affect your client's ability to keep the job and describe strategies to work with both the person and the employer to address these concerns.

Rubric

Needs Improvement	Satisfactory	Accomplished